Equalities Statement 2022 - 2024

At Ocean Academy we are committed to:

- promoting equality of opportunity
- eliminating discrimination and harassment
- valuing diversity and promoting positive relationships
- providing an inclusive education which enables all pupils to develop their full potential
- meeting the requirements of the Equality Act 2010.

The Equality Act 2010 :

The Equality Act 2010 replaces previous anti-discrimination legislation with a single Act. The Equality Duty is set out in section 149 of the Act. It replaces the three previous public sector equality duties – for race, disability and gender – and covers the following protected characteristics:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Marriage and civil partnership (but only in respect of eliminating unlawful discrimination)
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

We ensure that we have due regard to the need to:

- eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by the Act
- advance equality of opportunity between people who share a characteristic and those who don't 3. foster good relations between people who share a characteristic and those who don't.

School Policies

The South Coast Regional Board as academy governors will ensure that in the cycle of policy reviews, that policies and practices are scrutinised to identify the effects they have on individuals or groups of people in relation to equality.

Aims of the School

At Ocean Academy we aim to:

- inspire an enthusiasm for learning
- make a difference to the lives of all learners values and beliefs

We are an inclusive school where pupils, parents, staff, governors, the Aspirations Academies Trust and local services work in partnership to meet the needs of the community.

We celebrate the positive contribution made by different social, ethnic and linguistic groups. We believe that members of our community should:

- have an entitlement to a quality education within a safe, attractive, clean and orderly learning environment,
- have access to a broad, balanced and challenging curriculum,
- enjoy learning, achieve high standards and reach their potential,

- be taught and supported by highly skilled and motivated staff,
- be valued, respected and treated fairly,
- show tolerance and respect towards others,
- receive praise and encouragement and grow in confidence,
- be responsible for their own learning and behaviour,
- understand the need for good personal relationships and healthy living,
- have access to a full range of extended schools services including childcare, health and social care, lifelong learning, family learning, study support and an out of hours programme of sports and arts activities,
- be enabled to make a positive contribution to the community and the wider world.

Staff and governors demonstrate our values and commitment to equality by:

- ensuring acceptable behaviour from all of the academy community and visitors
- Not discriminating against any member of the academy community by means of:

- responding to incidents and complaints in a proactive way
- providing access to services, facilities and information
- recruiting and employing people fairly
- meeting specific needs of all learners, staff and parents in line with academy policies
- reminding parents and children of the expectation that they should agree to the academy ethos and vision with relation to equal opportunities and behave in a way that consolidates this
- promoting positive ideals and attitudes towards all members of the academy community
- educating staff, children and parents about the needs, values and beliefs of others
- acting swiftly to tackle any form of discrimination or harassment
- seek advice if there has been any form of unfair treatment so that we can support those involved and reflect on everyday practices to ensure we operate at the highest standards
