

BUILDING CHARACTER THE OCEAN WAY

Self-Worth: We are respectful, confident and proud of ourselves and others, of our efforts and our achievements, demonstrating resilience and a can-do attitude. We know that we are a valued part of our community.

Engagement: We are effective communicators who are self-motivated, take risks in our learning, are curious and ask questions to deepen our understanding of the world. We are bold and try a variety of familiar and unfamiliar experiences that will help build our resilience and enhance our future opportunities.

Purpose: We value diverse knowledge, skills and cultures and thrive in challenging learning opportunities to become successful and valued role models now and in the future. We apply our learning to life and are prepared for the next steps in our learning journey.
